DECLARATION OF ANDREA L. JUNE

I, Andrea L. June, make the following declaration, and affirm that all statements made herein are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief:

1. I am a Hawaiian national and not a citizen of the United States of America. I am a keiki o ka `āina o Hawai'i.
2. I was raised in the ahupua`a of Wai`anae and continue to reside in this ahupua`a.
3. The Hawaiian nation to which I am a member has been recognized as an independent nation as early as the reign of the father of our country, Kamehameha the Great, the unitor of these Hawaiian Islands.
4. The Hawaiian nation continues to exist but is now under a state of occupation and colonization by the United States of America, constituting violations of treaty law, international common law, and international criminal acts of colonization as declared by the United Nations.
5. I do not consent to the application of jurisdiction by the United States, the State of Hawai'i or of those subsidiary or institutions created from those governments and consider any such act asserting such jurisdiction to constitute violation of laws which protect me.
6. Because enforcement of international law is filled with barriers, it therefore calls, even more forcefully upon the moral fiber of us all, to refuse to participate in such illegal acts or to be passive or condone such enforcement.
7. Being charged under the laws of the State of Hawai'i and threatened to have my liberty denied by a year of incarceration, I continue to maintain the government has no jurisdiction, will resort to all proper means of defense.

I say nothing further on this matter.

/s/Andrea L. June
